

Cotswold 65mm

THE ORIGINAL
LONDON
BRICK FORTERRA

The Cotswold London Brick presents a distinctive aesthetic characterised by its light grey hue, offering an alternative to traditional red or brown bricks.

The subtle colouration provides a neutral backdrop allowing other design elements to feature.

Combining an aesthetic subtlety with practical versatility, its light grey colour and gentle texture provide a modern yet timeless appeal, making it an excellent choice for a variety of architectural projects seeking a balanced and refined exterior finish.
